A number of Lalallee county, Texas, horse-thieves were overtaken at Ferdillo, Sunday, by citizens, and a fierce fight ensued. The thieves retreated, leaving one killed and one wounded.

Breach of Promise.

N. Y. World.

A breach of promise case at Bombay had a curious ending the other day. A contract of marriage of a Bengalee young lad of fifteen or sixteen years of age with a girl of eleven or twelve summers, of the blacksmith caste, was entered into between the parents in due form, and all the preliminary rites and ceremonies, excepting those performed on the day of marriage, were gone through; friends and relatives on both sides were entertained with feasting, the tumeric paste was exchanged between the bride and bridegroom and presents of clothes were made, the nuptial thread was worn, etc. The marriage was to take place on the Saturday following. On Thursday the boy was absent from his home the whole night. This came to the notice of the girl's parents, who at once withdrew their consent to the marriage. But as loss of caste on either side was sure to follow the postponement of marriage beyond the day and hour fixed for it, the friends of the girl succeeded in hunting out a widower, and those of the boy were also fortunate enough to secure the hand of a girl of nine, and thus, in place of one, two weddings took place at the same time.

Down Among the Clover Blossoms.

Eadle Keatah Toh

Down among the clover blossoms in the play-ground was found a crumpled bit of paper, which proved to be a letter from Miss Head of Horses, a smiling-faced Cheyenne maiden, to Master Big Horse, an Osage boy:

CARLISLE, PA., May 23, 1881.

Our Negro Contemporary.

From Rumor.

Rumor is not essentially a paper published for the colored reading public. Our endeavor is to make it a truthful reflection of progressive negro thought. Rumor is published for those who want to know negro opinion from a negro standpoint, and what negro opinion is, regarding white opinion of negroes. The man who wants to know correctly what negroes are doing will seek his information from this source—from the best negro journal he can find.

A Chinese Will.

N. Y. World.

The petitioner was John Ah Young, to whom Ah Hee willed his affects, which are valued at $100. This was the first time that letters were granted in the Surrogate's office on the estate of a Chinaman and also the first time that Mr. Traynor, the Administration clerk, was compelled to call in an interpreter, Bronchial Affection Cured.

888 Seventeenth St., San Francisco. March 4, 1878. The California Plaster Company.—Gentlemen: Your Plasters have entirely cured me of a severe bronchial affection, from which I suffered for some three years. The effect in my case was most magical. If any one doubts their efficacy refer them to me. Respectfully yours, C R WORRALL.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For lame back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, druggists, Reno, Nevada nov8-eod-d&w

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The Parents.

Haunted Me.

Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost.—A Workingman.

Answer this Question.

Why do so many people we see around us, seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 75 cts we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them? Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada.

RESIGNATIONS OF SENATORS.

The National Government has been in existence for nearly 92 years, and since its organization there have been up to the present date, 211 United States Senators who have voluntarily resigned their seats in the National Senate. The striking fact in the case is that a large proportion of them came from the thirteen original States. The list is as follows:

Maine	9	Georgia	11
New Hampshire	8	Alabama	4
Vermont	6	Kentucky	11
Massachusetts	17	Tennessee	6
Rhode Island	7	Ohio	8
Connecticut	6	Illinois	1
New York	13	Arkansas	1
New Jersey	9	Michigan	2
Pennsylvania	8	Mississippi	9
Delaware	11	Louisiana	6
Maryland	9	California	1
Virginia	14	Iowa	2
North Carolina	4	Minnesota	1
South Carolina	15	Kansas	1

The last resignation was made under compulsion—that is to say the incumbent had the choice of resigning or meeting the alternative of expulsion. John M. Berrien of Georgia resigned on three different occasions—1829, 1845 and 1852. When he tendered his resignation the second time the Legislature accepted it, but he was immediately re-elected by nearly a unanimous vote. He was a man of the very highest order of ability, his public and private morals above reproach. The following named Senators, the most of them distinguished in the annals of fame, each resigned their seats on two different occasions: Daniel Webster, Hannibal Hamlin, Simon Cameron, John M. Clayton, John Forsyth, Jefferson Davis, George W. Campbell, Andrew Jackson and John. J. Crittenden.

THE THUNDERER ON MONEY.

In view of the reassembling of the Monetary Conference to-day, the London Times, while conceding that as an act of courtesy to France and the United States it was proper to accept their invitation to send delegates to the Conference, advises the withdrawal of the English representatives in that body, as there is no expectation in any case of England's agreeing to anything that will affect her adhesion to a single gold standard. The writer of the article declares that the basis of the Conference is a fundamentally erroneous conception of government in regard to metallic currency and opposed to the traditional principles of the English currency system. It views the presence of English delegates in the Congress as most unfortunate and calculated to injure the reputation of the English Government in dealing with metallic currency, which is simply to guarantee its weight and fineness, following the wishes of its subjects in the selection of the metal, and in no way offering to regulate the supply of the metal itself.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

This is what Conkling told "Clint" Wheeler, one of his followers: "Clint, what you want is a place where the pickings are large, where the business is done by gaslight, and the gas is turned down low. There is a headlight turned on this place you are after just now, and I advise you to try for something else." "Think of a man talking to me that way," said Wheeler, in relating it to a friend.

Unpopular ministers that no community wants are called "gum-log preachers" in the Georgia M. E. Conference. They are "hard stock," and are generally put off on some mountain community, where they get a salary ranging from $50 to $200 a year, which is from $49 to $199 more than they earn.

"A Holyoke, Mass., Miss offers to head a band of 100 girls from that place, where there are five women to one man, and go far West, where there are homes, employment—and plenty of old batchelors." The Holyoke Miss is evidently a bolting puritan.

The crumbling monarchies of Europe should have their lives insured. The signs are unmistakable and the handwriting on the wall is a foot high. The historic Bonaparte Park at Bordentown, N. J., once the home of the ex-King of Spain, is about to be turned into a mammoth machine shop.

The Philadelphia Common Council refused, 55 to 16, to expel a member, Stephen Herse, who had received a bribe of $25, kept it over night and then returned it.

This action was in the nature of an advertisement for more satisfactory bids.

The Battle Mountain Messenger man gives a gloomy picture of Battle Mountain's future. He says "it is doomed to be the forth coming city of Nevada." This will probably form a foundation for a relief bill in the next Legislature.

Six weeks ago Senator Sessions said at Albany: "We have got the hog-hook into Conkling, and are drawing him towards the hot water." The hook seems to hold fast in Conkling, but Sessions, by a misstep, has slipped into the hot water.

"Daylight now lasts 15 hours per day, and the farmer who keeps a hired man as is near satisfied as he ever will be." Meanwhile the hired man prays earnestly for fat pork and sundown.

Edward Atkinson figures it out that the accumulation of capital in the hands of the people by the reduction of railroad charges was $300,000,000 in 1880.

Music! Music!

Of the Mendelssohn Quintette Club the Enterprise says:

A better and more artistic combination of musicians than the gentlemen composing the Boston Quintette Club never trod the boards of the Opera House here, or anywhere else, for that matter. Those possessing good taste and love for exquisite music who attended this entertainment were well repaid for their trouble and outlay, and have cause for congratulation that they listened to a series of the finest musical performances ever presented in this city, and which, we venture to say, they will not soon forget.

The GAZETTE hopes that there will be a good attendance at Reform Club Hall to-night. Also that those parties that have more boots than brains will try to keep quiet, and allow lovers of music to appreciate the entertainment. Go to the hall to-night and try to appreciate a first-class musical performance.

State Fair.

The Carson people seem to feel very kindly about the State Fair, and promise to aid the people of Reno.

The Silver State has these good words to say,

Reno proposes to entertain her guests at the annual meeting of the Nevada State Agricultural Society this fall after the old fashion. The GAZETTE says: "The programme will be made up after the Fourth of July meeting in California, and published everywhere." The fair is in the hands of experienced and practical men, and they have the money and facilities to make a first-class meeting. The people are thoroughly interested in this business and will give a liberal support. There will be special premiums for almost everything that can be made a feature, and no pains will be spared to make it a first-class fair.

Bound Over

Last evening the examination of H. F. Pavola was concluded before Judge Young. He was bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury, with bail fixed at $1,000. To day Judge Young, on advice from the District Attorney, reduced the bail to $500.

Steamer on Fire.

[Special to the GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.

The steamer Empire caught fire early this morning at the wharf at Oakland. Her cargo consists of coal. She was still burning at last accounts.

Happy Democrats.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

The Democratic Senators here agree that the action of the New York Legislature in not balloting with a quorum on Saturday last, will furnish them with ground for an inquiry into the credentials of any man who may yet be chosen by the N. Y. Legislature. They are not agreed, however, that such an inquiry could keep any elected Senator out. At any rate the Democrats are inclined to think that they will organize the committees next winter.

News From Boston.

This is the time when old pioneers declare "Beer makes me billious," and take to whiskey straight and Hub Punch. A large delegation of ranchers, formerly of Boston, visited Chase & Thyes to-day. They believe the earlier and purer days of the Republic are returning.

Dr. Thessing and L. Besser were stopped on the road near the White House, near Portland, last evening at 5 o'clock by two highwaymen, who came out from the timber with weapons cocked. One man covered the travelers while the other relieved them of their money and valuables.

A Lady Correspondent.

MR. EDITOR: In a recent issue of your paper "Daisy S." writes to know what to do when she has the "blues." Now I have been troubled with that very unpleasant and essentially feminine complaint in the past and I am quite sure my experience will help her. I don't believe those indigo feelings come because things don't go right around us, but because matters do not go right within us. Every lady understands this and knows the cause. For years I suffered terribly and I now see that I might have avoided it all had I known what I do to-day. I tried taking Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure as an experiment, and it did for me more than I could ever dreamed it possible to do for any woman. I would not be without it for the world, and I earnestly advise Daisy S. and every woman so troubled as she was to use the means which I did and I am sure it will have the same effect.

JOTTINGS.

—It is expected that Perkins & White will occupy the Palace Hotel by July 7th.

—Fine fishing is now reported at Hope valley, Tahoe, Pyramid, Fallen Leaf and Cascades lakes.

—Fame is fame. The Carson Appeal mis-spells seven names out of the eleven Reno contractors.

—S. Peyser is going to Bunting-ville, and Joe Wyse says he will knock prices while the proprietor is away.

—"Patoosu-paraway," is what the Piutes call the comet. "Patoosu" is Piute for star, therefore "paraway" must stand for the tail—star with a tail.

—In Washoe Valley swarms of crickets are following in the wake of the grasshoppers. They are big, fat, lubberly fellows, an inch in diameter, and delight the hearts of the Washoe Indians.

Reading His Obituaries.

The GAZETTE was the only paper on the Coast that refused to write an epitaph for Pat Holland. The Tomb stone Epitaph of a recent date says that Pat calls at the office every day to read the notices of his death in all the Nevada and California exchanges. It is the greatest amusement of his life. Pat never looked jollier and tougher. The story of his accident and death was a barefaced canard.

LONG VALLEY.

Some of its Beautiful Homes Described for the "Gazette"—The Baby Crop.

LONG VALLEY, June 27, 1881.

Editor Gazette: The crops in Long Valley are looking excellent, and there are no hoppers. The grain is beginning to turn and the hay is being cut. The Warm Spring ranch could be made a beautiful spot, with its abundance of warm and cold water. The residence of looks comfortable and shows taste, as there can be seen a small conservatory of flowers, a nice yard displaying specimens of mineral rocks, and other rocks of rare and beautiful formations; a few flowers in the yard, which show to better advantage by contrast with the long, dusty road and sagebrush country through which you pass from Reno northward for forty miles before you reach this place. Adjoining Mr. Ross', and farther down the valley is ranch, with a beautiful mansion as a residence; with a large garden of vegetables and fruit orchard, with heavy native willows on the beautiful spring brook running alongside of the place. Still farther down is the palatial residence of Mr.

MR. ALBERT ROSS

THE EVANS BROTHERS'

ROBERT E. ROSS,

with its smoothly shorn lawn, large vegetable garden, large orchard with rare kinds of beautiful and delicious fruits and berries. The flowers are numerous and beautiful, and the back ground of thick, tall, balm of Gilead trees throws a coziness over the place that is not excelled in Northern California. This Mr. Ross has a very fine and expensive system of water works, brought from other mountains in the rear of the place, in iron pipes under ground, with seven or eight hydrants, with hose attachments, from which streams of water can be thrown over the buildings. He has a lawn mower, and everything has a place, and is kept in its place, and order is found everywhere about the ranch, indoors and out, and as order is God's principal law, it is easy to account for the thriftiness and neatness of this model ranch, beautiful grounds and palatial residence.

All three of these residences have been carved out of the barren sage-brush country, with taste, energy and hard labor. The last of the three, however, is the finest and neatest. They are situated upon the brow of the hills very close in the rear, overlooking the broad green fields of hay and grain in front of each of them. A sheep or coyote could be seen from the front door in any of the large fields belonging to either of them. The baby crop has also been good in Long Valley this season so far, and is not all harvested at this date I believe.

THE BABY CROP.

There has been within the last three months born in this narrow strip of God's universe babies to the following named citizens: to the wife of Mr. Ed. Dalton, a daughter; to the wife of Mr. J. Roberts, a son; to the wife of Mr. Dick Roberts, a daughter; to the wife of Mr. John Robinson, a son; to the wife of Mr. R. Chamberlin, a daughter; to the wife of Mr. Charles Raghan, a daughter. This is a fair showing in this line for so sparsely a settled country. There are six regular freight teams hauling on the Long Valley road towards Susanville, and ten over the summit towards Beckwourh and Jamison. The Fourth of July will be celebrated in right royal style at Sierraville this year. A large tent for public speaking, lunch, etc., is erected, a dancing floor laid, fine swings built; a band of music and a car of State to form part of the celebration, and to wind up by a social dance at Mr. J. Campbell's Hot Springs. The saw and planing mill of T. H. Fletcher & Son, was burned last Friday, 24th instant. Loss about $3,000. M. D.

An Honorable Gentile.

Hon. Allen G. Campbell, Gentile delegate to Congress from Utah, was in Reno last night. He went to Virginia this morning. GAZETTE readers will recall his contest with the Mormon delegate Cannon, and the action of Governor Murray in issuing a certificate to Campbell. Delegate Campbell is a tall, fine-looking man, with an attractive face and carriage.

Exchange.

On and after July 5th, the First National Bank will charge exchange on all drafts issued on San Francisco, Sacramento, Virginia City, Carson and other points.

An Accurate Description of Lake Tahoe —Its Characteristics and Surroundings.

Cor. S. F. Bulletin.

Lake Tahoe is a sheet of water, approaching to the rectangular in its general shape, lying in a northerly and southerly direction, about 25 miles in length and varying from 10 to 15 miles in width. It is of very great depth, the soundings over a large part being from 1,700 to 1,900 feet, while in one small portion near the northern end the Government surveying party were unable to reach the bottom with a line 3,000 feet in length. The water is cold, exceedingly pure and clear, and of a most lovely blue. In certain hours of the day, with a proper condition of sunlight, nothing can exceed in beauty the appearance of the water as seen from the shore, the variety of hues, the shades of green near at hand and of blue in the distance, mingled with each other, and the whole surface reflecting with perfect distinctness the clouds and the mountain sides. While rowing in a boat at a little distance from the shore, where the depth does not exceed 50 feet, it is a most fascinating pleasure to watch the changing character of the bottom through the absolutely transparent water, which is as clear as crystal. Every rock, even every pebble is distinctly visible, covered in many cases by a bright green growth of aquatic mosses. In gently floating on the surface, the boat seems at times about to strike against some huge bowlder or projecting rock, which is 10 or 20 feet beneath us.

Although the lake lies at an elevation of more than 6,000 feet above the sea level, it is surrounded on all sides by mountain peaks and ridges still higher. At intervals among these hights there are depressions or "gaps" over which run in some directions wagon roads to different places, and in others were trails passable for horses and pedestrians, but not for vehicles. The mountains which border the southern half of the lake are much higher than those about the northern portion—more bold, precipitious, and in every way more remarkable. Several of these peaks reach an elevation of from 9,000 to 12,000 feet above the ocean, and are now, and I believe throughout the year, covered with snow on their summits.

Plumas Pickings.

Mining is progressing well in Mohawk valley, Plumas.

Diamond Mountain, Lassen county, is becoming a lively camp.

The Golden Gate mine, Alleghany, Sierra county, has started up.

Everything is favorable for prosperous times in southern Sierra county.

The Consignee Gold Mining Company, Plumas county, are to construct a nine-mile ditch.

The American Mining Company at Morristown and Craig's Flat, Sierra county, will finish working about the first of July. The season has been a good one for them.

Messrs. Kemp & Livingstone, working the noted Irish Crevice leading from Irish Bar, Plumas county, into the hill, are being richly rewarded for their efforts, picking up daily nuggets of good size, and anticipate a rich harvest of gold when they shall have reached the bottom of the crevice.

Says the Plumas' National: The Yellow Creek Mining Company has been for several years engaged in making a canal to conduct the waters of Yellow Creek, in Humbug valley, to the banks of the North Fork, at or below Junction Bar, and having completed the work, have put into operation one first class hydraulic chief. The extensive gravel banks along the North Fork, Yellow Creek and Mosquito Creek promise great results.

Damphools.

An exchange says that a Damphool Club has been started in Reno, and that two newspapers are at work night and day printing certificates. The GAZETTE is informed that a large list of charter members has already been secured. The organization will be kept a profound secret. A Carson man named S—m D—v—s, the boss of the order in this section, will be here in a few days to exhibit himself before the lodge and help in the organization.

The Fourth at Verdi.

Wm. Merrill and lady of Verdi were in Reno yesterday. Merrill expects 800 visitors fromT ruckee July 4th and a large delegation from Reno. A special train is talked of. Merrill is a genial host.

STAGE STOPPED.

A Bold Bad Man Robs the Truckee and Sierraville Stage, Containing Eleven Passengers.

The energetic road agents of the West will not down. They are steadily contributing to the history of the highway, and perpetuating the fame and name of R. Turpin, William Tweed and others of that ilk. In a country where a tar brigade and an efficient branch of "601" are maintained, it might be expected that the burglar would turn his jimmy into a pruning hook, and the highwayman would transform his horse pistol into a shovel plow, but such is scacerly the case. Only last night as the stage from Sierraville to Truckee was making the customary —— miles an hour a masked man, who had been crouching behind a blade of grass, leaped into the road. Although there were eleven passengers the bold robber brought the outfit to a halt and proceeded through it. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box suffered as usual, and the agent departed with his booty. The loss could not be learned up to press time to-day.

The Dry Tourists.

The Central Pacific has arranged to supply seventeen cars from Reno for the accommodation of excursionists to San Francisco on July 3. It is thought that from 800 to 1,000 people will leave Reno on the special train. Two hundred and seven-three tickets have already been sold in Virginia City. At Gold Hill Chubbuck and Thornton have disposed of all their tickets for the San Francisco excursion, amounting to eighty, and could sell twenty more if they had them. It is calculated that each car will carry about 50 persons.

There have been 100 tickets sold in Carson, and a large number in Reno. Points in Eastern Nevada will also swell the number, and Reno will no doubt be crowded to suffocation on Saturday night next.

Whose Comet?

Two simultaneous dispatches have been received by Prof. Swift, of the Warner Observatory at Rochester, N. Y., by which it appears that another great comet has been discovered. Prof. Sharpless, of Haverford College, Pennsylvania, states that L. T. Edwards saw it with the naked eye on the morning of June 23, and Mr. Edgar L. Larkin, of New Windsor, Ill., also reports seeing it and that it is vast. The new comet is located in the constellation of Auriga about 8 degrees from Capella, and it is not improbable that it may be the much expected comet of 1812 which should appear not far from that locality. As the two dispatches were received at Rochester simultaneously, there is some question as to whether the honor of discovery, and the Warner prize of $200, belong to Mr. Edwards or Mr. Larkin.

The Baptist Social.

The entertainment at the Baptist Church last night was a success. The house was filled and the programme gave great satisfaction. The singing was excellent and the recitations fine. Miss Minnie Scott was heartily encored in her recitation of "Nobody's Child," and gave "The Last Hymn" with fine effect. After the musical entertainment, the large company was treated to ice cream, and all seemed at home and spent the evening very pleasantly. Dr. Scott announced that in a short time Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven" with a splendid concert, would be given. Beside the local talent that would assist, some very fine singers from San Francisco would participate.

Nearly Perfection.

The Enterprise says: To lovers of fine music, if present last night at the Opera House, the concert of the Mendelsohn Quintette Club, of Boston must have been supremely enjoyable. They are thorough artists and masters of their instruments. Every piece they performed last night was done with artistic taste, and came as near perfection as brains and hands could accomplish. It was a musical treat not often enjoyed by our people in this mountain town.

Great Expectations.

The Appeal says: When a Washoe Indian starts out to hunt he says: "Mebee me shootum buck. Bad day guess me get slagehen, me tak 'em blook and line and fiind some pish, mebbe tiout, mebbe slucker, but if me no find buck, slagehen, tiout or sluck-er, me catchum labbity sure."

PERSONAL.

The Smith Bros. of Pleasant Valley are in town.

H. L. Tichenor, Carson, was in Reno last evening.

Frederic Bagot was registered at the Depot last night.

D. W. Swain, C. P. R. R., was at the Arcade yesterday.

U. S. Surveyor, General E. S. Davis has gone to San Francisco.

Colonel Jerry Moore, of Elko, went to San Francisco last night.

W. S. Bailey, the well known cattle raiser and dealer, is in Reno.

Frank Dickinson, vulgarly called Tuley Frank, blew in with the afternoon breeze to-day.

Dr. F. H. Payne, Berkeley, Cal., passed through Reno last night.

Colonel F. F. Osbiston has gone out to the State Line mine.

Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, of the U. S. Circuit Court, and his two sons went to San Francisco from the east last evening.

S. A. Mann Esq., attorney-at-law, has located his office in the Journal building. All legal business will be promptly attended to.

R. H. McDonald, Superintendent of the Bank of California, and V. & T. teaming business, was in Reno to-day and returned to Carson at noon.

Correction.

The GAZETTE's cotemporary says: Now Tom Hymers says he discovered the second comet. Let the congregation arise and sing: "You're off your nut."

Mr. Thomas K. Hymers, of Delhi, Delaware county, New York, and later of Washoe City, and Reno, Washoe county, Nevada, desires the GAZETTE to give him space: He says: "I want the public to understand distinctly that I retire before the comet raises, also, that although I rise early, I have not seen a comet since I was a boy. I also object to the jocose manner in which I have been mentioned, and to the use of slang in connection with an honored name."

Honeymoon Lane.

There was formerly a time-honored highway near Huffaker's which bore the name of Bachelor's Lane. Recently two of the aforesaid bachelors have come to grief and committed matrimony. Day before yesterday the old sign was knocked down and lay prone in the dust. Yesterday it was raised again, but above it in letters one foot high appeared the inscription: "Honeymoon Lane." Nothing like being accurate, and all well regulated bachelors will do well to shun the locality.

Soap Factory.

A large soap factory in Reno is a possibility of the near future. It is rumored that a portion of the old slaughter-house belonging to the California Fruit and Meat Shipping Company may be used for the factory. If the project is carried out, C. D. McDuffie, of Virginia, will be superintendent, and D. S. Tallman will manage the work of the factory.

Hurrah for the Fourth.

D. Peyser, of the Mechanics' store, has just received a large lot of ladies' underclothing and a beautiful line of white sacks trimed with French embroidery. Night dresses, chemises, drawers, etc., all in white. Ladies shoes, and gents fine French diagonal suits. Go and see the new goods, you will need something before the 4th. *

The Asylum Contract.

Messrs. Powning, Frazier and Condon went to Carson this morning to confer with members of the Board concerning the Asylum Contract. There are certain minor details upon which they wish to confer and agree with the officers. They will probably arrange for an early commencement of the work.

To Carson.

The V. & T. R. R., according to their usual liberal policy, has allowed an excursion train between Reno and Carson for July Fourth. Round trip tickets will be sold at the Reno ticket office for $1 50. Carson has made due preparation, and will no doubt have a fine celebration of the day.

A Change.

Mr. E. H. Hamlin, the well-known proprietor of Buffalo Station, on Buffalo Meadows, has retired. He will be succeded by F. A. Sawtelle, who will care for man and beast in the best possible manner. Charles Knust shipped to Mr. Sawtelle to-day one ton and a half of choice groceries,

Stole Her Lover's Watch.

N. Y. Sun.

A fair young German maiden was arraigned before the District Court of Dortmund for stealing a watch from a youthful handicraftsman of that city. The person she had robbed proved to be her own affianced lover, who, upon discovering his loss, had forthwith notified it to the Dortmund police, without the faintest notion that the theft had been committed by his betrothed bride. Investigation resulted in the discovery of the stolen property at a pawnbroker's shop, where the damsel had pledged it for a trifling sum. When brought to trial she avowed her guilt with many tears and sobs, alleging that, being unable to purchase her wedding dress, and being unable to confess her poverty to her future husband, she had purloined his watch with the object of realizing a sufficient amount by its hypothecation to equip herself decently. It is pleasant to know that this piteous confession was responded to in a gallant and magnanimous spirit by the despoiled bridegroom, who declared that "the prisoner was and ever would be his only love, and that he would marry her out of hand if the Judge would consent to set her at liberty." Without a moment's delay, the tribunal annulled the arraignment, and the generous lover carried off his lacerated larcenist in triumph.

Another Account of Pinchback's Poker Game.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A morning paper undertakes to explain that game of poker in which Pinchback dropped his roll. The version is all wrong according to those who were there. The Tanners, in whose house the game was played, are very devout people, and feel greatly scandalized at learning their high-toned guests indulged in the sinful game all of Saturday night and pretty much all of Sunday. It seems Pinchback, of Louisiana, Kit Greenup, Andy Scott of Chicago, and Bob Harlan of Cincinnati each took a hand, and that Andy Scott was the lucky man who carried away the biggest part of the winnings. An authentic explanation of how they "raised" $900 out of Pinchback's pocket, is this: The ex-Governor got four nines in the deal and thought he had a "sure thing." Kit Greenup received three jacks in the deal and then drew the monkey. With this elegant hand he proceeded to scalp the distinguished negro politician most successfully. Mrs. Tanner says the gentlemen paid her well for the use of the room, but if she had known they were going to make a gambling den of her virtuous household, she would have fired them out, if they were big guns with the negro race.

Bradlaugh Wants In.

N. Y. World.

Mr. Bradlaugh has another point in reserve to submit to the House of Lords. The writ in "Clarke against Bradlaugh" is dated on the same day as that on which he is charged with sitting and voting. The law, he holds, takes no account of fractions of a day; and so the writ must be taken to have issued in the first hour of the day, and therefore before he sat and voted. Unfortunately the maxim is capable of being applied both ways, so that the sitting and voting may be taken to have happened in the very first hour in the day; whereas the writ could not issue until 10 o'clock in the morning. But if justice require it, fractions of a day are counted. On July 2 last the House met at 2o'clock; Mr. Bradlaugh immediately made his affirmation, and shortly afterwards voted in the division taken upon the issuing of the Tewkesbury writ. There was, therefore, ample time for the writ in the action to be issued in the same day before the law offices closed.

Strange Death of an Infant.

Cincinnati Commercial.

Katie Thompson, a one-year-old child, suffered death in a peculiar manner at her parents' residence in Lockland, Thursday night. She slipped while asleep, off the mattress, between the slats, and was left hanging there. When found she was dead. Coroner Rendigs decided an inquest unnecessary.

A considerable amount of American mining machinery is on its way to Mexico to develop the mines of that country. In consequence of the great distance of the mines from the railroads, the expense of transportation has been found to be, in many cases, greater than the cost of the machinery.

Lieutenant J. W. Davidson died at St Paul Monday. He accompanied General Kearney on his march to California in 1846, and fought at the passage of San Gabriel and at other points in the advance of Kearney and Stockton on Los Angeles in January, 1847, in one of which engagements he was wounded.

ABOUT SOLES!

SOME PEOPLE THINK THEY HAVE no souls; all the rest think they have souls. Newspapermen educate the people and have intelligent souls. Fishmongers have stinking souls. Some Clergymen with the bell-book and candle-light think they can damn souls; Beecher ignores the doctrine of eternal brimstone and says it's questionable about the existence of souls subscribers who pay punctual for the GAZETTE have large souls while the dilatoryones have small souls and the collectors have so much walking to do to get their pay that they die of disease—the result of thin soles; People who take their boots to WATSON'S ON THE PLAZA, have prime soles; if they take them elsewhere they have poor soles. I say one thinks they have no sole, come to me. I will furnish you two good soles one-legged men a specialty. I will make you like other folks by supplying you with a good double sole
